A BRAND-NEW ERA. AN ALL-NEW INGRAM'S.

NEW FEATURES, A NEW WEB SITE PORTAL AND NEW PROGRAMMING WILL TAKE YOUR AD DOLLAR FARTHER IN INGRAM'S THAN IT GOES IN ANY OTHER BUSINESS PUBLICATION OR MEDIA IN MISSOURI AND KANSAS.

As we begin our fifth decade in business, Ingram's continues to set the standard for business news and information in Missouri and Kansas. And savvy marketing professionals from organizations that advertise in Ingram's know there's no better way to reach more than 100,000 influential and affluent executives and readers who see the magazine every month, or the 25,000 additional readers who see those ads reprinted for free in Ingram's Quarterly Reports and reprint publications. But we're not standing still: New features in the magazine planned for 2015 are designed to broaden the print product's reach; a new, vastly expanded and data-rich Ingrams.com will extend one of the nation's highest readership profiles onto the Web, and new programming will create additional opportunities for sponsorships and collaborations that will further drive your organization's marketing message. In print and on-line, several hundred thousand influential readers make Ingram's part of their business life every month—and that number will grow dramatically. If you're not reaching that audience, you're not getting the most out of your marketing budget. We invite you to join us in this next exciting phase of Ingram's Media, and we would be honored to serve your organization as a strategic partner with your positioning team.

community. By covering both national and local trends in business and convening local players to share sharp insights and perspective, Ingram's distinguishes itself by offering readers clarity on complex topics—in particular, the coverage of development in the healthcare sector is a must read. Ingram's was also quick to recognize the importance of health and wellness to the success of businesses both from financial and workforce effectiveness perspectives, and we have been proud to sponsor and support participants in the Fittest Execs and Companies Challenge. At Blue KC, we are proud to call Ingram's Magazine a partner and appreciate the support this publication provides to Kansas City. Here's to many more years of healthy growth and prosperity."
